Continuation of 11. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: The examiner respectfully submits that cited references suggest a step of responding to an order as claimed by the applicants (it is clear that "a response formulated based on capabilities of a "communication" device is a very fundamental issue); please note that "capabilities" as claimed has many interpretations. For claim 35, the applicants argue that "there is a fine difference...", please put that "fine difference" in claims. for further considerations
